

Greater Vancouver Community Services Society (GVCSS) is a non-profit society delivering care and services in the community to support the independence and well-being of the elderly, adults with disabilities, and others who require support to retain or regain health and autonomy.

GVCSS is currently seeking for families, couples, or single adults who are interested in an opportunity to host and welcome an individual with a disability into their homes.

Job Description:

GVCSS is proud to offer Home Sharing through our Community Living program where a person with a disability lives with a family, couple, or a single adult in their home. As the individual becomes integrated in family life, they are given opportunities to develop natural relationships and social circles.

Qualifications:

- Prior training or experience related to supporting a person with developmental or physical disabilities
- The Home Share Host shares our commitment to fully inclusive Community Living
- The Home Share Host and their families understand that this is a lifestyle choice, and not work. There is no eight-hour shift and then a return to their families and homes. All family members must commit to the changes required to be a Host Family.
- The Home Share host and their family provide a safe home environment that meets all applicable safety standards.

Requirements include:

- Current First Aid Certification
- Criminal Record Search
- Valid BC Drivers License
- Three letters of reference

The interview and assessment process consist of:

- Application
- Home study
- Autobiographical interview
- Safety check
- Skills inventory

Various factors will be considered when matching caregivers and individuals, such as social and cultural values, location, and successful personal connection during an interview and integration process.

Compensation: Will be a fair assessment and dependent on your contract terms.

APPLY NOW For more information about our Home Share program and to apply please visit: <http://www.gvcss.bc.ca/homesharing.htm>

Thank you for your interest in working with the Greater Vancouver Community Services Society. We look forward to hearing from you!